HUMAN TRAFFICKING IS IN YOUR COMMUNITY

“What if every church in America had a ministry to stand against modern slavery (HUMAN TRAFFICKING)?”

” — Dillon Burroughs

.....That is a BIG “WHAT IF” and why the OHIO FAITH NET was developed!

THE OHIO FAITH NET aspires

...to bring good news to the suffering and afflicted...to comfort the brokenhearted, to announce liberty to captives, and to open the eyes of the "blind" - Isaiah 61:1 (TLB)

And we hope to accomplish this by offering to churches and faith-focused organizations

ENLIGHTENMENT

Ohio Faith Net, in conjunction with leading experts in this field, will provide opportunities for awareness of the current state of human trafficking in our communities. By working together, we have a variety of multimedia tools available so that there are options to enlighten communities via different methods.

EDUCATION

After Enlightenment occurs, the Ohio Faith Network is ready to provide specific educational opportunities. These include two, four, and six hour seminars which cover the realities, misperceptions, business aspects of human trafficking and the role for faith communities.

EQUIPPING

The education offerings will be focused in providing practical tools which when applied, equip faith organizations to identify and teach how to better care for the victims of human trafficking.

ENGAGEMENT

Ohio Faith Net has partnered with several organizations who are also addressing the challenge of human trafficking. Therefore, opportunities for networking and quick engagement are available and encouraged. We are always looking for established faith-based partners to address this problem together.

EXPERTS

Ohio Faith Net has created alliances with experts in the field including for example:

- Abolition Ohio
- Ohio Attorney General, Mike DeWine's Human Trafficking Commission
- Ohio Mental Health and Addiction Services Trauma Informed Expert, Kim Kehl
- And many others

EXPERIENCE

Ohio Faith Net is collaborating with survivors of human trafficking who are willing to share their stories of resilience and hope

"People were created to be loved. Things were created to be used. The reason why the world is in chaos is because things are being loved and people are being used." - Unknown
